BAC DROPS RETURN GO AT VIRGINIA, 11-8

Despite one Bethel run in the first inning, the Virginia Club moved to 8-1 advantage in the second inning, Sunday afternoon.

"Lefty" Keniston started on the hill for the Raiders and by allowing four hits and six bases on balls gave up the first eight runs. Keniston was replaced by Herb Kittredge in the third, who pitched two hit, shut-out ball for five frames, giving up only a pair of passes. Pete Baker pitched the eighth and was the victim of the last three enemy counters.

BAC WINS LEAGUE OPENER FROM BRYANT POND, 9-1

With Herbie Kittredge pitching steady four-hit ball the Bethel Athletic Club started the local Oxford County League season off on the right foot as they trounced the Bryant Pond nine, 9-1, on Wednesday evening. The game was originally scheduled for tonight (Thursday) but was changed to avoid interference with Woodstock High's alumni game.

Bryant Pond scored their only run in the first inning when Howe singled thru short and Brown let the ball go past him in left field for an error, Howe taking second. He moved to third when Andrews grounded out, and scored on Farnum's single.

The Bethel Athletic Club will play at Rumford Point on Sunday at 2:00.

ROBERT A. FOSTER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gayle A. Foster of Bethel. Foster, a history major, will receive his AB degree cum laude at the Bates College commencement exercises Sunday. He has been active as editor of the weekly campus newspaper for the past year, a member of the Spofford Literary Club, and an officer of the Bates Christian Association. He has been a consistent Dean's List student.

Lesson for June 11, 1950

ZEPHANIAH seldom has been any reader's favorite prophet. His pictures of doom are enough to send shudders down any one's spine. It is as realistic as if he were describing H-bomb day. But the main point of Zephaniah is plain and practical: Repent! For selfish man and stubborn nation, that is the first necessity of all. Repentance is not merely regretting something one has done. Anybody can do that - and Dr. Foreman go right on committing the same sin. Furthermore, a man's regret for something he has done may be for a wrong reason.

Also, repentance is not just repentance-in-general. It is one thing to say, "O God, I am a sinner." It is quite another thing, and a harder one, to kneel and say to God: "You know well what a liar I have been."

Repentance is not real unless it is honest; and it is not honest till the repenter looks squarely at his own sins, knows them for real sins and is willing to call them by the ugly names they deserve.

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of Walter L. Strickland who passed away June 7, 1949. Time may heal the broken hearted. Years may make the wound less sore.

But it cannot fill the longing For the loved one gone before.

Who shall say the grief is lessened Though the smile may hide the tears
Memories keep the wound still open Despite the passing of the years.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Mrs. Marie Land of Mont gomery, Ala.: "I remember when we had gingham carpets on floors with straw underneath. At spring house-cleaning time, we would take them up and put in new straw."

From Mrs. Ethel Paulk Millard of Melba, Ida.: "I remember the summer of 1901 when we were living in the mountains near a saw mill in Colorado, and I used to watch the old ox teams go right by our door every day with great loads of pine logs. One afternoon five men on horseback came along as I was out gathering firewood. Seeing a golden-haired young girl was reason enough for them to stop and say howdy, ask about the country and if I had seen any catfish. I answered politely and noticed how beautiful their horses were and their cartridge belts. They all wore a pair of pearl-handled six shooters and had Winchester in scabbards on their saddles. Later I learned I had been hostess to the Black Jack Gang."

From Mrs. Alice Shetter of Apollo, Pa.: "I remember when it was illegal to transact any business on the Sabbath . . . and when a one-room schoolhouse and one teacher was expected to handle from 30 to 70 pupils."

From O. S. Sharp of Sturgis, Miss.: "I remember when cotton was ginned by horse or mule power as a man stood in front of the gin and dropped the cotton in the breast by hand. Cotton gins had no feeders or condensers in those days. Air blew the cotton into the lint room where it was put in a basket and carried to the press outside the house. A man would operate the press by hand while, then hitch a horse or mule to it."

From Clara Wopple of Concho, Tex.: "I remember when I was six years old my parents used a little heart-shaped boat filled with grease to light our home in Elk Township, O. A candle stick stuck out above the edge of the boat and we ate supper by its light every night."

An average of about 41 tons of steel is used in the construction of one mile of standard 2-lane concrete highway.
